I. The Course of Study Program

The Course of Study (COS) is prescribed by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry – Division of Ordained Ministry (§ 1421.3d). It includes Licensing School, the Course of Study, Advanced Course of Study, and Online Studies. In prescribing the COS, the Division of Ordained Ministry is responsible for developing curriculum, purpose and learning goals; providing resources; establishing, maintaining, and evaluating Licensing Schools and Course of Study Schools (COS); keeping central records on all students, and reporting on student progress to each Board of Ordained Ministry every year.

The Course of Study is a year-round experiential and classroom learning process. This process assumes cooperation between the instructors in the Course of Study schools and the clergy mentors in the annual conferences. Each Regional Course of Study school shall offer all 20 courses of the COS curriculum using texts recommended by the Division of Ordained Ministry (please see the Appendix for a complete listing of course descriptions and required textbooks). The Course of Study shall seek to meet the needs of both the full-time and part-time local pastors and is offered in languages other than English.

Curriculum

The design of the curriculum of the Course of Study:

1. Grounds local pastors in core competencies of biblical interpretation, historical and theological understanding, congregational leadership, and pastoral effectiveness.
2. Is developmental in nature, encouraging local pastors to follow the sequence of yearly courses as much as possible.
3. Equips local pastors to be missional leaders with an ability to reflect critically on the social contexts and congregational dynamics particular to their ministry settings.
4. Cultivates in local pastors practices of vital spirituality to nurture and sustain ministry, including a Christian hospitality that welcomes across boundaries.
5. Orients local pastors within the global United Methodist connection, inviting them to claim their role in the fulfillment of the church's mission.

Courses are to be taken in the sequence prescribed by the COS curriculum. At a minimum, students are expected to take first year courses in the first year of study and fifth year courses in the final year of study. In addition to these basic curriculum courses, the school may provide a communication skills program for students. Other special programs may be funded at the discretion of the schools or the Division of Ordained Ministry to meet student needs.

Some courses are available online through the Division of Ordained Ministry. Students who wish to apply for associate or provisional membership in the annual conference may take up to ten (10) courses [1/2 of the basic curriculum] online. (§324.6d)

For the purposes of Course of Study, an “online course” is one that is entirely computer-mediated. For the purposes of Course of Study, a “hybrid course” is one that includes both computer-mediated and classroom-based pedagogies, not to exceed more than 50% of the classroom hours being computer-mediated. Hybrid courses must use a 1:1 ratio in determining contact hours. One contact hour is defined as a minimum of 50 minutes. There is no limit on the number of hybrid courses that a student may take.

Admission

The Course of Study School provides for the education and training of local pastors in The United Methodist Church. Those admitted to the COS program shall have:

1. Been certified as candidates for ordained ministry
2. Completed the requirements for license for pastoral ministry
3. Be under appointment in the United Methodist Church. Exceptions to the appointment policy must have annual approval of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry, and cannot exceed two years.
4. Received the endorsement of the annual conference Board of Ordained Ministry
5. Received the endorsement of their District Superintendent

Students who are pastoral leaders from other denominations, may at the discretion of the Director, be admitted to the program. These other students are to be admitted at their own expense including an agreed upon amount for tuition. Students coming from the AME, AME Zion and CME churches, however, will not be charged a tuition fee. A report on the number of such special students shall be included in the Director's report to the Division of Ordained Ministry at the conclusion of school.

Class Requirements and Recommendations

It is expected that Course of Study courses be rigorous and theologically robust educational experiences, designed and taught to satisfy the Course of Study objectives established by the Division of Ordained Ministry, General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. To that end, students shall complete significant reading and writing assignments. Students and faculty are required to read and work with the material in the assigned texts. It is expected that students complete assignments, papers and projects equivalent to 20 pages per course. The standard number of class hours for each of the basic courses is a minimum of twenty (20) hours.

Advance Preparation

Advance preparation is required of all students in classroom-based courses. Online and hybrid courses may incorporate what would normally be pre-work into the course assignments if the online work of the course is at the beginning of the course. Assignments will include material related to classroom studies, as well as experience in pastoral ministry. Each school will determine the nature and format for the advance preparation required for students. The deadline for the submission of advance work is to be a school policy.

Class Attendance

A student is expected to attend every class session. Unexcused absences may be cause for loss of credit or dismissal from the school. A student missing twenty percent (20%) or more of the class room work shall not receive credit for those classes. Online work shall be included in the attendance policy.

Courses per Year

Full-time local pastors are required to take four (4) courses each year. Full time Local Pastors are allowed to attend only a regional school in any format to complete their 4 courses during a given calendar year, and would still need permission to take over 4 courses in any calendar year. (§318.1) Part-time local pastors are required to take two (2) courses each year (§318.2) but may take up to four courses in one year.

The maximum number of courses a student can take in the Course of Study is four courses per year. In some circumstances, students may be granted permission to take additional courses with the approval of the District Superintendent, the Board of Ordained Ministry, The Regional Director of the Course of Study School (and when appropriate the Director of the Extension COS) and the Division of Ordained Ministry. *)

(These permissions are related to the distinct role of each office. The Superintendent needs to be aware if there is more time away from the local church. The Board of Ordained Ministry is often asked for additional funding to support the extra expenses. The Directors are familiar with the student's progress and will know if the additional studies will impact the quality of learning. The COS office wants to know all offices are in agreement and that the policies are being followed.)

Grades and Evaluation

Course of Study Schools will use letter grades A, B, C, D, or F. If, for personal or family reasons, a student has to drop out of a course before completing it, an "Administrative Withdrawal" may be given.

Grade reports will be sent to the Division of Ordained Ministry, the annual conference, and (in the case of the extension schools) the Regional COS Director. The deadline for grades will be 60 days after the completion of class sessions. Grade reports from the extension schools will indicate whether the student is a part-time or a full-time local pastor. Incomplete grades that are not resolved within 60 days will be recorded as an F. An F or Administrative Withdrawal grade will remain on the transcript even if the course is retaken and passed.

Students who wish to have grade reports sent to undergraduate schools for purposes of receiving external degree credit may request them by writing to the Division of Ordained Ministry, COS Registrar

II. COS School Administration

Course of Study Registrar Guidelines

Grade Sheets

1. Grade sheets must include a PID number for each student. PID numbers can be obtained from Pamela Frost at GBHEM. If there is no PID number for a student, students should be instructed to ask for a PID by emailing cosregistrar@gbhem.org. The student's name and Annual Conference should be included in the email.
2. Grade sheets must include the student's appointment status, listed as Part-Time or Full-Time. This information should be collected by the Course of Study School at the time of enrollment.
3. End dates for each course must be included on grade sheets or listed in the correspondence sent to GBHEM. GBHEM tracks this information for reporting purposes, so an accurate end date is very important. An end date for a course is the last date attended in class or the date the last assignment was due without being considered late.
4. Hybrid, Satellite and Residential courses must be indicated on grade sheets so that GBHEM can accurately track this information.
5. Students may request a copy of their COS transcript by emailing Pamela Frost at cosregistrar@gbhem.org. The student's full name and Annual Conference must be included in the email.

COS Enrollment

1. Students requesting information about the GBHEM online COS offerings should be directed to the GBHEM website link www.gbhem.org/cos. Licensing School information as well as Regional and Extension School contact information can also be found on the GBHEM website.
2. Enrollment forms for each COS School course must contain both the DS and Local Pastor Registrar (or other BOM representative) approval for each student for each course. Both approvals are required and must be recorded at the school for future reference. Each school may determine the best method for obtaining approvals. Schools must be able to produce documentation of both approvals if requested.
3. If a Full-Time Local Pastor submits an enrollment form to an Extension School, the school must verify that the student has completed the proper approval process to attend an Extension School. This includes written approval from: The DS, LPR, and the Director of the Extension School they want to attend, the Director of the Regional School that the Extension School reports to, and from the Assistant General Secretary at GBHEM. Only when a student has received all approvals in writing are they permitted to attend an Extension School. If a school does not have the approvals on file, please contact Pamela Frost at cosregistrar@gbhem.org to find out if GBHEM has copies of the approvals.

4. If a Local Pastor wishes to take more than four courses in one year, they must complete the proper approval process. This includes written approval from: The DS, LPR, the Director of the Regional School (an Extension School if appropriate) and from the Assistant General Secretary at GBHEM. Only when a student has received all of approvals in writing are they permitted to enroll in more than four courses. If a school does not have the approvals on file, please contact Pamela Frost at cosregistrar@gbhem.org to find out if GBHEM has copies of the approvals.

Records

The records of the Course of Study School shall be kept by the Director under the privacy guidelines developed by the Division of Ordained Ministry and the General Council on Finance and Administration. As noted above, each school is responsible for sending the grades of each student to the Division of Ordained Ministry COS Registrar within 60 days of the close of the session. The Division of Ordained Ministry records the grades on the student's permanent record and will make them available annually to the annual conference registrar. The Division of Ordained Ministry shall issue additional official COS transcripts only upon written request of the student (please see the Appendix for additional COS Registrar Guidelines).

Integrity of Course of Study Schools

Every effort should be made to preserve the integrity of Course of Study Schools. This is understood to include:

1. Maintaining accountability to the Division of Ordained Ministry, to the seminary in which a school resides or to which a school is affiliated, and to the conference (s) related to the school;
2. Adhering to the policies of the Division of Ordained Ministry, and (when appropriate) other sponsoring institutions;
3. Maintaining high academic standards through faculty selection, syllabi and grading;
4. Avoiding any appearance of conflict of interest or nepotism in administration, faculty and student relationships.

Site Visits and Evaluations

Periodic site visits of Regional and Extension Schools shall be conducted by the Division of Ordained Ministry. A team will be formed by the Division of Ordained Ministry and will include peer directors that will meet with faculty, students and advisory or management boards in order to assist in the evaluation process.

Failure to Follow Policies

The failure to follow policies established by DOM, GBHEM, will result in a review of the school. Recommendations from the site review will list changes needed and could lead to discontinuance as an approved school.

Appeal to these Policies

Exceptions to these Administrative Policies must be approved by the staff of the Division of Ordained Ministry, at the request of a Course of Study School Director or conference Board of Ordained Ministry representative.

III. COS Faculty Guidelines

Faculty from United Methodist theological schools shall be chosen to teach in the Course of Study School whenever possible. Those courses which cannot be filled with such faculty persons shall be taught by persons who would qualify for adjunct faculty status in that particular theological school. Attention to ethnic diversity, gender inclusiveness and language competency shall be given in the selection of faculty. All efforts should be made to avoid any conflict of interest or nepotism in the hiring of faculty.

Considerations in Faculty Hiring

- 1) Process, Information, and Documentation
 - a) The Resume (Curriculum Vita)
 - i) Academic qualifications (documented through copies of transcripts, degrees, or letters certifying completion of academic programs)
 - ii) Teaching experience
 - (1) Teaching experience where academic credit was granted, location and dates
 - (2) Lacking academic teaching experience, are there reasons to anticipate good teaching performance from the candidate?
 - iii) Church, Clergy or Lay Experience
 - (1) If clergy: ordination credentials (date, conference or judicatory)
 - (2) If clergy: appointments served
 - (3) If lay person: church experience or evidence of commitment to the church
 - (4) Both clergy and lay: committees, boards, commissions of the judicatory (annual conference or general church)
 - b) Personal Interview
 - i) The Director(s) shall interview the candidate to ascertain information concerning the written documentation.
 - ii) Evaluate and authenticate the documents
 - c) Consultation with Regional Director
 - i) If an Extension School, there will be a consultation with the Regional Director to consider the curriculum vita and transcripts of possible instructors as required before hiring.
- 2) Evaluation of Documents and the Candidate
 - a) Academic Qualifications
 - i) Are the candidate's degrees granted or experience in the academic or church skills in areas to be taught in the Course of Study?
 - ii) Does the candidate's record show at least two or more graduate courses in the field to be taught?
 - iii) What grades were assigned to such courses?

- iv) Does the candidate have two or more courses in another field that would qualify the individual to teach other Course of Study courses?
- v) If an individual is already recognized by one of our University Senate approved seminaries as a professor or an adjunct professor, transcripts will not be required.
- b) Teaching Experience
 - i) Has the candidate provided evidence of teaching experience in an academic credit environment?
 - ii) Has the candidate provided evidence of teaching experience that has been evaluated by an academic supervisor?
 - iii) Does the candidate pursue study in the field after graduate study has been completed, thus keeping somewhat current in the field?
 - iv) If there has been no academic teaching experience, would the candidate be likely to develop such teaching abilities, given the opportunity?
- c) The Interview
 - i) The candidate's affinity and/or desire for teaching
 - ii) The candidate's affinity and/or desire for relating to pastors
 - iii) The candidate's affinity and/or desire for relating to The United Methodist Church
 - iv) The candidate's affinity and/or desire for advancing pastoral education and skills for local pastors
 - v) The candidate's affinity and/or willingness to engage in such education with relatively minimal compensation
 - vi) The value and appropriateness of the candidate's pastoral or church experience

IV. Regional Course of Study Schools

Regional Course of Study Schools are established by the Division of Ordained Ministry. They are located at United Methodist seminaries in venues central to local pastor student populations. Essential factors for Regional Schools are the availability of United Methodist theological school faculty, library resources and access for usage, dormitory access and space for worship and building of community among the student populations. Full time local pastors shall attend one of the approved Regional Course of Study Schools.

Regional Director

The Director of a Regional Course of Study School shall be an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church with a minimum of three years of pastoral leadership in a local church setting. The Director shall be a member of the faculty or administrative staff of the sponsoring seminary.

The Director of a Regional Course of Study School is recommended by the seminary and approved by the Division of Ordained Ministry.

The director shall be responsible for:

- a. registering students, maintaining student and faculty records, reporting grades to the Division on Ministry, and reporting student assessments to the appropriate boards of ordained ministry as required;
- b. assuming administrative responsibility for establishing a budget, caring for expenses and insurance, and for ensuring an annual auditing process;
- c. selecting and evaluating faculty for the regional school and consulting with extension school directors on the selection and evaluation of extension school faculty;
- d. supervising administrative and program staff;
- e. supervising special programs such as language tracks, cultural activities or extension schools;
- f. consult with annual conferences and other bodies and oversee the development of proposals for extension schools;
- g. developing a collegial community between students and faculty in the school;
- h. give attention to the spiritual life and formation of the Course of Study community;
- i. presiding over faculty meetings;
- j. drafting and submitting of annual reports to the Division of Ordained Ministry;
- k. participating in meetings of the Council of Directors developing curriculum, policies, and budgets for the Division of Ordained Ministry;
- l. serving as a liaison with the host seminary;
- m. convening and chairing an annual meeting of the board of advisors;
- n. creating and giving oversight to a satellite school as deemed necessary in consultation with conference representatives;
- o. ensuring compliance with the administrative and academic policies of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry and the host seminary.

The Regional School Director shall meet annually with Directors of Extension Schools in his or her region. The meeting shall include but not be limited by the following:

- Faculty vita review
- Prior approval of faculty to be used in the extension program
- Evaluation of the Extension School's program
- Sharing of syllabi and book lists

Periodic site visits of Extension Schools shall be conducted by the Regional Director and a Division of Ordained Ministry representative to meet with faculty and students in order to assist in the evaluation process.

Regional Board of Advisors

Each Regional Course of Study School shall have a Board of Advisors. The Board of Advisors shall be composed of at least one representative from the conference Boards of Ordained Ministry enrolling the majority of students in the school, the COS Director and a representative from the Division of Ordained Ministry. The COS Director shall convene and chair the Board of Advisors. The Board of Advisors shall also include other administrators, faculty and students.

The conference representative(s) to the Board of Advisors shall conduct annual site visits to provide feedback regarding the effectiveness of the school. Findings may be submitted in writing or presented to a meeting of the board. The board shall meet with the Director at least annually and review the program and needs of the school. The board shall seek to promote support of the school through its constituent boards of ordained ministry. Supplementary financial support for the school may be given through boards of ordained ministry for the sake of maintaining the quality of the educational process.

V. Extension Schools for Part-Time Local Pastors

When there is a need for a COS school for part-time local pastors who are unable to attend a Regional Course of Study School, the Division of Ordained Ministry may establish an extension school. Extension Schools shall not cross jurisdictional lines without consultation with other Course of Study Directors in the jurisdictions involved.

The following process is utilized in establishing an Extension School:

1. A written proposal shall be developed in consultation with a regional director
2. The proposal shall be reviewed by the Council of COS Directors
3. The Council of Directors shall make a recommendation to the Division of Ordained Ministry concerning the establishment of an extension school
4. The Division of Ordained Ministry approves the establishment of an extension school
5. A Board of Managers is selected for the Extension School
6. An Extension School Director shall be a United Methodist and is approved by the Division of Ordained Ministry, after consultation with:
 - a. Annual Conference(s). (This may be the Board of Ordained Ministry Executive Committee or task group assigned for this purpose, all with the Bishop's knowledge.)
 - b. Regional COS Director
 - c. Board of Managers of the Extension School
7. Faculty is selected by the Extension School Director with the approval of the Regional COS Director.
8. In development of new Extension Schools, each course offered shall be scheduled over at least two (2) non-consecutive weekends or sessions. There should be at least one month between course offerings.
9. All costs are to be assumed primarily by annual conference funding and student fees.
10. An Extension School will budget for the administrative support services provided by the Director of the Regional Course of Study School at a rate negotiated with the Regional Course of Study Director.
11. Extension Schools will send grade reports to COS Regional Directors and the Division of Ordained Ministry.

Governance of an Extension School

1. Extension Schools are an integral part of the Course of Study program prescribed by the Division of Ordained Ministry.
2. Director of an Extension School
The director of an extension school shall be a United Methodist with accountability to the director of the appropriate regional school. The Director of the Extension School shall be responsible for the oversight, governance, and development of an extension school for part-time local pastors in accordance with the administrative policies of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. To that end, the director of an extension school shall be responsible for:

- a. registering students, maintaining student and faculty records, reporting grades to the regional director, the Division on Ministry, and reporting student assessments to the appropriate boards of ordained ministry as required;
- b. assuming administrative responsibility for establishing a budget, raising funds, caring for expenses and insurance, and for ensuring an annual auditing process and submitting it to the regional director;
- c. selecting and evaluating of faculty for the extension school in consultation with the regional director;
- d. developing a collegial community between students and faculty in the school;
- e. give attention to the spiritual life and formation of the Course of Study community;
- f. drafting and submitting of annual reports to the Division on Ministry in accordance with their policies and procedures;
- g. serving as a liaison with both their regional school and their host institution;
- h. convening an annual meeting of the extension school's board of managers; and
- i. ensuring compliance with the administrative and administrative policies of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry and the regional school.

3. Board of Managers

Each extension school shall have a Board of Managers that shall be responsible for overseeing the general operations of the extension school, in consultation and collaboration with the regional director. The Board of Managers shall be comprised of the director of the regional school to which the extension school is affiliated, the director of the extension school, the treasurer, and the local pastor registrar or other representatives of the constituent annual conference(s). A chairperson shall be elected from the Board's membership. Neither the regional director nor the extension school director shall serve as chair. The Board of Managers shall be responsible for:

- a. Selecting and nominating the director of the extension school in consultation and with the approval of the director of the regional school; and
- b. ensuring that the director of the extension school establishes a fiscally sound budget, raises funds, cares for expenses and insurance, and providing for an annual external audit process.

The conference representative(s) to the Board of Managers shall conduct annual site visits to evaluate the effectiveness of the school. Findings may be submitted in writing or presented to a meeting of the Board of Managers.

VI. Satellite Schools for Part-time Local Pastors

When a Regional Course of Study School determines there is a need for a COS school for part-time local pastors within their Jurisdiction, the regional school may present a proposal to the Board of COS Directors for approval of such a school. Satellite Schools shall not cross jurisdictional lines without consultation with other Course of Study Directors in the jurisdictions involved.

The following process is utilized in establishing a Satellite School:

1. A written proposal shall be developed by the Regional school in consultation with the annual conference(s) impacted.
2. The proposal shall be reviewed by the Council of COS Directors.
3. The Council of Directors shall vote approval of the creation of a satellite school.
4. A satellite school shall receive oversight from the regional schools Board of Advisors.
5. Regional School Director is responsible for selection of faculty.
6. In satellite schools, each course offered shall be scheduled over at least two (2) non-consecutive weekends or sessions. There should be at least one month between course offerings.
7. The location of the satellite school is determined by the regional director, in consultation with the conference representative(s) and the Division of Ordained Ministry.
8. A satellite school shall be financially tied to the regional school so that the regional school shall hire and pay faculty and be responsible for all expenses related to running the satellite school.
9. Regional schools shall keep all academic records for the satellite school and shall send grade reports directly to the Division of Ordained Ministry.

Governance of a Satellite School

1. Satellite schools are an integral part of the Course of Study Program relating directly to a regional school as prescribed by the Division of Ordained Ministry.
2. Accountability of the satellite school shall be with the appropriate regional director to whom the satellite school relates in accordance with the administrative policies of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. To that end the regional director of a satellite school shall be responsible for:
 - a) registering students, maintaining student and faculty records, reporting grades to the Division of Ordained Ministry and reporting student assessments to the appropriate boards of ordained ministry as required;
 - b) assuming administrative responsibility for establishing a budget, raising funds and caring for expenses;
 - c) selecting and evaluating faculty;
 - d) developing a collegial community between students and faculty in the school;
 - e) giving attention to the spiritual life and formation of the Course of Study community;

- f) submitting annual reports to the division on ministry in accordance with their policies and procedures;
 - g) serving as liaison to their host institution;
 - h) convening an annual meeting of the regional school Board of Advisors and
 - i) ensuring compliance with the administrative and administrative policies of the general Board of higher Education and Ministry.
3. Board of Advisors
- Each satellite school shall relate to the Board of Advisors of the host regional school that shall be responsible for overseeing the general operation of the satellite school, in consultation and collaboration with the regional director.

VII. Advanced Course of Study

The purpose of the Advanced Course of Study for Ordained Ministry is to provide a curriculum which will enable a local pastor to meet the educational requirements for full conference membership and ordination as elder.

“Local pastors may fulfill the requirements for provisional membership when they have...
c) Completed the Course of Study for ordained ministry, of which no more than one-half may be taken online...

d) completed an Advanced Course of Study consisting of thirty-two semester hours of graduate theological study offered by a seminary recognized by the University Senate; or its equivalent as determined by the GBHEM. The Advanced Course of Study shall include the basic graduate theological studies. ¶324.6”

1. Undergraduate Requirement: There is no bachelor’s requirement to enroll in Advanced Course of Study, but the lack of such a degree will in most circumstances proscribe the local pastor from applying for provisional membership. A candidate for provisional membership shall have completed a bachelor’s degree from a college or university recognized by the University Senate. Exceptions to the undergraduate degree requirements may be made in consultations with the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry in some instances, for missional purposes, for persons who have a minimum of sixty semester hours of Bachelor of Arts credit... ¶324.3
2. Local pastors need to complete a total of 32 semester hours of graduate theological studies at a University Senate approved school; or an equivalent as determined by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.
3. Candidates for provisional membership through the Advanced Course of Study shall have completed all of the basic graduate theological studies in the Christian faith. These courses should be included within the 32 hours of the Advanced Course of Study. These basic graduate theological studies (BGTS) include:
 - a) Old Testament
 - b) New Testament
 - c) Theology
 - d) Church history
 - e) Mission of the church in the world
 - f) Evangelism
 - g) Worship/liturgy
 - h) United Methodist doctrine
 - i) United Methodist polity
 - j) United Methodist history (¶324.4a)

4. Advanced COS students shall be encouraged to enroll in the Master of Divinity curriculum courses. GBHEM offers scholarships for ACOS students at $225 per credit hour for students enrolled in a master's level course for academic credit. The scholarship is sent to the seminary once the student is enrolled. Scholarship funds are limited and therefore are not guaranteed. Students should contact GBHEM prior to enrollment regarding the availability of funds.
5. Advanced Course of Study courses will not duplicate those included in the Course of Study curriculum. ACOS courses should not be survey courses.
6. Each student shall have courses recorded by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. These become a part of their permanent educational record for Boards of Ordained Ministry.
7. A minimum of six semester hours of credit are required for United Methodist history, doctrine and polity. These may be taken at any United Methodist seminary or any University Senate approved theological school. UM history, doctrine, and polity are also available online through the COS office.
8. One basic unit of Clinical Pastoral Education may be recognized as the equivalent of six (6) semester hours in the Advanced Course of Study.
9. Graduate studies not taken in a theological school, which parallel courses offered for advanced studies, may be approved by the GBHEM up to a maximum of nine (6) semester hours. Such studies must have been taken within the last 10 years.
10. Students may complete no more than 10 hours of online courses within the Advanced COS.
11. Individual students are responsible for ensuring they meet particular Advanced Course of Study requirements established by the annual conference in which they are pursuing membership and ordination.

VIII. Required Policies for All COS Schools

Every Course of Study School shall have a written policy related to the issues named below. They may vary slightly in process and procedures, in consideration of an institution's ongoing policies. Each written policy must also list the possible consequence should a violation occur.

Academic Integrity Statement/Plagiarism

Each COS school shall establish an academic standards policy, including procedures and possible consequences for responding to violations of the policy.

Sexual Harassment Policy

Students, faculty and employees of the Course of Study come under the jurisdiction of their own annual conference policies on sexual harassment. However, while the person is at the Course of Study School the following policy shall also apply.

The Course of Study School is committed by Christian faith to justice for all persons and does not tolerate any behavior, verbal or physical, by any person associated with the school, which constitutes sexual harassment against any other person associated with the school. Any person of the Course of Study School community who believes that he or she has been subjected to sexual harassment should immediately report the situation to the Director of the Course of Study School. When reporting a complaint, the individual should be prepared to furnish accurate information (i.e., date, name and facts). All such complaints will be treated in a confidential manner to the extent feasible, while permitting the school to investigate the complaint thoroughly and to take appropriate action.

The school expects the cooperation of all members of the school community with respect to avoiding such harassment.

The school will investigate all complaints. If it is determined after an investigation, that a member of the school community has violated this policy, he or she will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action up to and including suspension or termination from the school. In addition, a full report will be made to that person's annual conference or judicatory body.

Definition of sexual harassment:

“Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when

1. submission to such conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term of condition of an individual's employment or academic standing; or

2. submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or academic standing decisions affecting such an individual; or
3. such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or study performance or creating an intimidating hostile, or offensive working or studying environment.”

¹The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Section 1604.11 of Title 29. Italicized words are added for the academic environment at the Course of Study School.

Procedures

The Course of Study School is committed to using the process outlined below to deal with allegations of sexual harassment within the school community. A sexual harassment allegation may be resolved on an informal basis.

Any member of the school community who wishes to make a formal complaint, must submit a written description of the incident to the Director.

Allegations are thoroughly investigated by the Sexual Harassment Committee which is composed of the Director and two members of the faculty chosen by the faculty. The investigation shall include a meeting with the person alleged to have engaged in harassment. The accused and/or the complainant may bring a trusted colleague (other than an attorney), committed to maintaining confidentiality, with him/her to such a meeting.

If the Sexual Harassment Committee decides inappropriate behavior has occurred, after completing the investigation, the Director takes appropriate disciplinary and/or other action related to the accused person's participation in the Course of Study School on that campus. In addition, the Director will inform the accused person's annual conference or judicatory body of the action taken.

Those called to investigate the allegations take appropriate steps to ensure that a person who in good faith brings forth a complaint of sexual harassment will not be subjected to retaliation. The Course of Study School also takes steps to ensure that a person against whom such a complaint is brought is treated appropriately and has adequate opportunity to respond to such accusations.

The complainant and the person complained against are notified of the disposition of the complaint. If the disposition involves any ongoing process, the Director keeps the complainant informed until the process is completed.

Appeal Process

If the accuser or the accused is not satisfied with the action taken by the Course of Study School, s/he may express such dissatisfaction in writing to the Director of Board of Ordained Ministry Relations, Division of Ordained Ministry, General Board of Higher Education and Ministry within 15 days after receiving the notification of the disposition of the complaint.

Confidentiality

Every effort will be made to ensure confidentiality to the extent feasible while permitting the Course of Study School to investigate the complaint thoroughly and to take appropriate action.

The Course of Study School will not tolerate retaliation against any member of the school community who complains of sexual harassment.

Explanatory Notes

If a person alleged to have engaged in sexual harassment is the Director, then the person bringing the complaint shall notify either one or both faculty members who serve on the Sexual Harassment Committee. The two faculty members shall ask the president of the seminary at the host school to appoint an administrative officer to serve as chairperson of the Sexual Harassment Committee and to function as the Director in the process outlined above.

Racial Harassment Policy

Persons enrolled in the Course of Study come under the jurisdiction of their own annual conference policies on racial harassment. However, while the person is in the Course of Study School the following policy shall also apply.

The Course of Study School is committed by Christian faith for justice for all persons and does not tolerate any behavior, verbal or physical, by any person associated with the school, which constitutes racial harassment against any other person associated with the school. Any person of the Course of Study School community who believes that he or she has been subjected to racial harassment should immediately report the situation to the Director of the Course of Study School. When reporting a complaint, the individual should be prepared to furnish accurate information (i.e., date, name and facts). All such complaints will be treated in a confidential manner to the extent feasible, while permitting the school to investigate the complaint thoroughly and to take appropriate action.

The school expects the cooperation of all members of the school community with respect to avoiding such harassment.

The school will investigate all complaints. If it is determined after an investigation that a member of the school community has violated this policy, he or she will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action up to and including suspension or termination from the school. In addition, a full report will be made to that person's annual conference or judicatory body.

Definition of Racial Harassment

Any conduct directed against a person with the effect of insulting, degrading or abusing him/her because of his/her racial background.

Procedures

The Course of Study School is committed to using the process outlined below to deal with allegations of racial harassment within the school community. A racial harassment allegation may be resolved on an informal basis.

Any member of the school community who wishes to make a formal complaint, must submit a written description of the incident to the Director.

Allegations are thoroughly investigated by a Racial Harassment Committee composed of the Director and two members of the faculty. The investigation shall include a meeting with the person alleged to have engaged in the harassment. The accused and/or the complainant may bring a trusted colleague (other than an attorney), committed to maintaining confidentiality, with him/her to such a meeting.

If the Racial Harassment Committee decides inappropriate behavior has occurred, after completing the investigation, the Director takes appropriate disciplinary and/or other action related to the accused person's participation in the Course of Study School on that campus. In addition, the Director will inform the accused person's annual conference or judicatory body of the action taken.

The Course of Study School takes steps to ensure that a person against whom such a complaint is brought is treated appropriately and has adequate opportunity to respond to such accusations.

The complainant and the person complained against are notified of the disposition of the complaint. If the disposition involves any ongoing process the Director keeps the complainant informed until the process is complete.

Appeal Process

If the accuser or the accused is not satisfied with the action taken by the Course of Study School, s/he may express such dissatisfaction, in writing to the Director of Board of Ordained Ministry Relations, Division of Ordained Ministry, General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, within 15 days after receiving notification of the disposition of the complaint.

Confidentiality

Every effort will be made to ensure confidentiality to the extent feasible, while permitting the school to investigate the complaint thoroughly and to take appropriate action.

The school will not tolerate retaliation against any member of the school community who complains of racial harassment.

Explanatory Notes

If the person alleged to have engaged in racial harassment is the Director, then the person bringing the complaint shall notify one or two faculty members who serve on the Racial Harassment Committee. The two faculty members shall ask the president of the seminary at the host school to appoint an administrative officer to serve as chairperson of the Sexual Harassment Committee and to function as the Director in the process outlined above.

IX. Course of Study Travel Policies

ECE (La Escuela del Curso de Estudio) Travel Policy

All students desiring travel assistance should contact their ECE Director for the policy and the travel assistance application, whether they plan to travel by air or by car.

Travel by air: The ECE director will send a list of registered students to the Office of Specialized Theological Education (ece@gbhem.org), preferably 45 days before the school begins. Once the names of students are forwarded to Direct Travel, they may contact the agency at 800-229-3344, ext. 391, or jgalindo@dt.com to make reservations. Students should book their flight at least 21 days prior to departure.

The student will be charged for unexcused flight changes or cancellations. A student who books a flight through another travel company will only be reimbursed the cost of what the ticket would be if it were booked through Direct Travel. Any flight booked less than 21 days prior to departure, is subject to partial repayment. Payment for flight changes, cancellations, or partial repayments will be collected by the travel agent at the time of flight confirmation.

Any exceptions to this policy will be decided between the ECE Director and the staff at the Division of Ordained Ministry.

Fees for shuttle service, parking or meals during travel are at the individual's expense.

Travel by auto: Students who travel by automobile will be paid mileage up to 1,000 miles or the cost of a round trip air fare booked through Direct Travel, whichever is less. Mileage must be verified by submitting a MapQuest printout of the route. If carpooling, only one student will be reimbursed for mileage or automobile rental. Mileage is the only expense paid through the travel fund. Other items, such as gasoline, parking, or meals during travel are at the individual's own expense.

COS Travel Policy for Students from Hawaii

GBHEM will cover the cost of a local pastor's travel from Hawaii to the Western Jurisdiction Licensing School or Course of Study school. The following procedures should be followed to reserve travel:

1. When a student registers for WJ licensing school or COS classes, the student must notify the Hawaii District office of the enrollment.
2. The Hawaii District Superintendent must notify GBHEM of the registration and scheduled class dates (preferably as soon as the student registers or at least 45 days in advance of event);
3. GBHEM notifies the travel agency of approval for the student to make flight arrangements at the expense of GBHEM and provides the student's name and contact information;
4. GBHEM notifies student, Hawaii District office, WJ Regional Director of approval, and provides the travel agency contact information;
5. The student must contact the travel agency to make reservations at least 30 days in advance;
6. Any flight reserved less than 30 days prior to departure is subject to partial repayment by the student. Payment for any increase in ticket price after the 30 day deadline will be collected by the travel agent.

X. COS Transcript Evaluation Policy

1. Evaluation of transcripts for the purpose of transferring credit to the Course of Study shall be done by the professional staff of the Division of Ordained Ministry only at the request of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry. Copies of the evaluation are sent to the official making the request. Credits are not finalized until accepted by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.
2. Transcript evaluation requests shall be accompanied by the official transcript(s) to be evaluated and a general description of the applicant's educational background. When it is not possible to send an official transcript, a photocopy may be submitted.
3. Transcripts from graduate schools and schools of theology recognized by the University Senate of The United Methodist Church shall be acceptable for evaluation and the transfer of credit.
4. Credit received from a graduate school or seminary not recognized by the University Senate for the COS will be evaluated on a case by case basis.
5. Credit received from all other sources shall be reviewed and approved by the conference Board of Ordained Ministry and the Division of Ordained Ministry.
6. Credit may only be granted for a course of one and one-third semester hours or two quarter hours or more when the content and objectives of the course are substantially the same as the purpose and goals of a similar course in the Course of Study and the course has been taken in the last 10 years. Exceptions to this policy will be considered only at the request of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry and on a case by case basis.
7. Credits can be granted for the Advanced Course of Study if the credits are from a University Senate recognized graduate school of theology or seminary. (See ACOS Guidelines)
8. Undergraduate credit is not applied to COS credit. For missional reasons, exception may be considered when requested in writing by the conference Board of Ordained Ministry. If an exception is granted, regular maximum credit shall be six (6) courses.
9. Undergraduate credit received from institutions outside of the United States will be evaluated on a case by case basis. If an exception is granted, regular maximum credit shall be ten (10) course.
10. When credit is requested for courses that have been taken at undergraduate institutions or non-University Senate approved theological schools, course credit will not be given for the following courses under any circumstances: 223: Worship and Sacraments; 224: Administration and Polity; 422: Wesleyan Movement; and 524: Theological Reflection: Practice of Ministry.
11. Undergraduate credit or seminary credit for courses with grades of less than "C" shall not be allowed as applicable to the Course of Study or Advanced Course of Study.

XI. Appendix

Communication Skills Guidelines

1. Each annual conference Board of Ordained Ministry should determine and administer a policy regarding the use of a preliminary reading test to candidates for license for pastoral ministry. The Tests of Adult Basic Education (TABE) may be used and is available from the Division of Ordained Ministry.
2. Those local pastors who fall below established norms should engage in an appropriate program of remedial work in language prior to registering in the Course of Study. This program should be taken under the guidance of the District Committee on Ordained Ministry and the Board of Ordained Ministry using the resources of a local high school or college. The District Committee should notify the appropriate COS school if a student is in this category.
3. If the student has not taken the preliminary reading test, the Course of Study schools may administer a language proficiency test to entering students.
 - a. Students falling below established norms should be assigned to appropriate classes for tutoring and assistance during their first and second years.
 - b. Students falling below a standard established by a Course of Study School may be required to reduce their regular course work in order to devote time to remedial work in a language.
4. The communication skills program should be clearly outlined in school materials, communicating a statement of philosophy, requirements, and goals. The program should be emphasized and clarified in the orientation students receive on campus.
5. Although the program will emphasize reading and writing skills, other communication skills may be addressed through an enrichment program. It is recommended to make a communications lab available to students for remedial work or enrichment purposes.
6. The Course of Study School will not routinely send communication to the Boards of Ordained Ministry regarding writing and communication skills, but reports may be made available, upon request, with the written permission of the student.
