

Mississippi Course of Study School at Millsaps College

An Extension Program of Candler School of Theology at Emory University

About the Mississippi COS School

The Mississippi Course of Study School at Millsaps College is dedicated to the formation of United Methodist pastors who are spiritually grounded, theologically responsible, relationally skilled, and professionally effective. MSCOS operates as an extension program of Candler School of Theology at Emory University. It is administered by the Center for Ministry, which is a cooperative ministry of the Mississippi Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Millsaps College. MSCOS is accredited through the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church. MSCOS is designed to meet the educational needs of United Methodist part-time local pastors. (Full-time LLP's must attend a regional COS school, or request special permission to attend an extension campus.)

*121 and 122 are prerequisites to all other courses. Courses are designed to be taken in the sequence prescribed by the COS curriculum. If you need to make an exception to this practice, please speak with the MSCOS School director. MSCOS reserves the right to refuse enrollment in a class if they believe a student is not prepared to take it. MSCOS reserves the right to alter this schedule and/or faculty roster as needed at any time.

Honor Code

All MSCOS students are required abide by the MSCOS Honor Code, and to seek to uphold the highest standards of academic and pastoral integrity. The Honor Code of MSCOS requires that all material that a student submits must be that student's own work. Violations include: cheating, turning in work completed by someone else, copying work from the internet without citation, and plagiarism. Plagiarism is defined as knowingly claiming the published work of another person as one's own (including the lack of proper citation in a paper or other assignment). Any student not in compliance with the Honor Code faces one or more of the following actions: receiving a warning, failing the assignment, removal from the course, failing the course, being placed on probation, and expulsion from MSCOS. The MSCOS reports all Honor Code violations to the student's district superintendent and local pastor registrar.

Academic Expectations

The MSCOS includes both class time with the instructor, coursework to be completed outside of the classroom, including pre-coursework, and work through Course Connect, our electronic learning platform. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of deadlines set by the instructor and to complete all assignments on time. MSCOS faculty reserve the right to mark down or refuse to accept late assignments. All completed written assignments must include a cover sheet, signed by the student's mentor. The cover sheet is available for download on the Center for Ministry website. For electronic submissions, students are to scan the cover sheet and include it as an attachment. The MSCOS will use letter grades A, B, C, D, or F. Students must repeat classes graded D or F. The MSCOS sends grade reports to the Division of Ordained Ministry, the annual conference, and the Regional COS Director. In exceptional circumstances, students may request an incomplete for a course by submitting a written request to the instructor and the MSCOS director. Incomplete grades not resolved within 60 days will be recorded as an F.

Attendance Policy

Each course includes a minimum of twenty contact hours. In case of illness or emergency a student may miss up to 4 hours of class and still receive credit for the course if that absence is excused by the instructor and the director of MSCOS. A student missing more than 20% (4 hours) of class time for any reason shall not receive credit. Unexcused absences of any length may result in loss of credit or dismissal. Students must submit requests for excused absences to the director via email in addition to phone calls or in-person conversations.

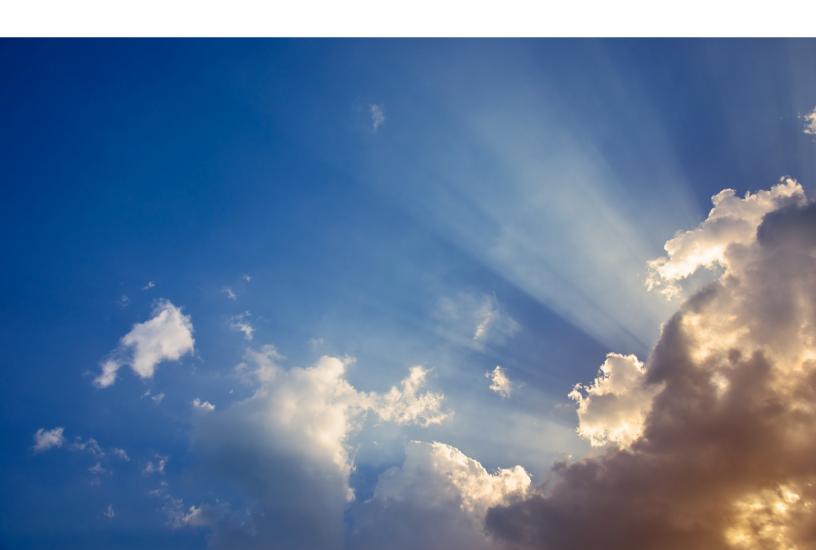

Registration and Payment

Student Registration is found on the Center for Ministry website, www.centerforministry.com. Registration payment must be made within one hour of online registration or the system will delete the registration. If immediate payment is not possible, please contact the Center at 601.974.1488, or ministry@millsaps.edu to make other arrangements.

Registration is not complete until MSCOS receives approval from a pastor's district superintendent and local pastor registrar. When students register online, their DS will automatically receive an email, however registrants must still email them to ask for their signature. Digital signatures or email approvals are encouraged. If a student's district is not listed in the drop down menu of the registration form, they are to contact the center.

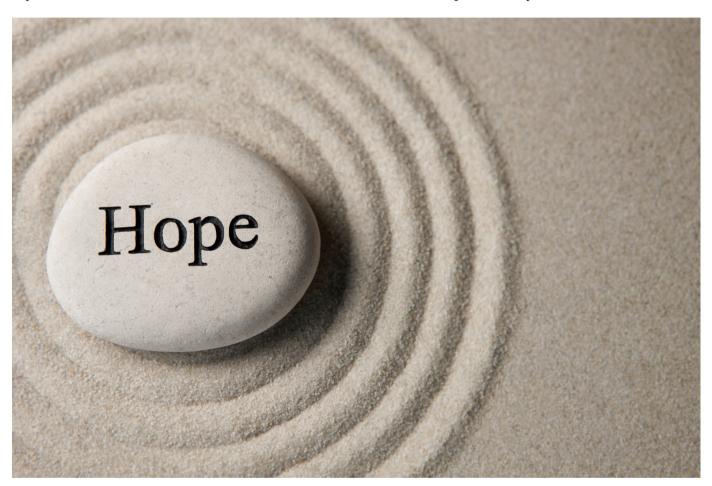

Students must register separately for each course.

Many annual conferences pay for some or all of their students' COS tuition and/or registration fees. It is each student's responsibility to understand their annual conference's policy. Students may contact their district superintendent or local pastor registrar for more information. Before the first day of class, students must communicate to our office who is responsible for tuition cost and give invoicing directions.

Cancellations and "No-Shows"

Unless a student officially cancels their registration before class begins, the student and/or their annual conference will be charged tuition. Cancellations must be made via detailed email to the Program Manager and Course of Study School Director. The registration fee is neither refundable nor transferrable. A student's completed registration indicates their commitment to take the course. Registered students who do not show up for class will receive a letter grade of "F" for the course. "No Shows" will not receive refunds or credit. Lodging must be cancelled by the student and any fees associated with cancellation are the student's responsibility.

Administrative Withdrawals

Students who must drop out of a course before completing it for pastoral, personal, or family reasons, may request an "Administrative Withdrawal." A registered student must submit a detailed letter or email explaining the reason for withdrawal to the MSCOS Director no later than the beginning of class on the second weekend of the term. The Director will review the letter and respond to the student as soon as possible. An Administrative Withdrawal notation will remain on the transcript even after the course is retaken and passed. The registration fee is neither refundable nor transferrable.

The MSCOS policies and procedures were developed in accordance with the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's policies and guidelines for Course of Study schools. More details may be obtained through the Center for Ministry and/or Candler School of Theology.
